Product Family: Aluminium Fry Pan

Alu Pro frying pan 32 centimeter aluminum induction-ready with Fusion® ceramic nonstick coating

Popular for its lightweight feel, sleek nonstick coating and superior performance, this Alu Pro frying pan by Pujadas is an excellent choice for almost any kitchen. The strong aluminum construction withstands high demand without feeling too heavy, making it ideal for all-day use. This aluminum construction is paired with a stainless steel sheet bottom to provide even heating and induction compatibility. This frying pan features a Fusion ceramic nonstick coating, which is PFOA-free and promises easy release and cleaning for an effortless user experience. The strong handle ensures a steady grip, while the hang-hole at the end offers a convenient storage solution. Fusion is a registered trademark of PPG Industries Ohio, Inc.
