IP Pro 35 Wok

The Pujadas IP Pro 35 Wok induction cooktop combines precision, power, and specialized design for professional kitchens. Tailored for wok cooking, its contoured vitroceramic surface ensures optimal heat distribution for stir-frying, sautéing, and other high-heat techniques. With 20 adjustable power levels and temperature control ranging from 50°C to 240°C (122°F to 464°F), it provides exceptional control for both delicate and intense cooking. Continuous power technology maintains steady heat at lower levels, perfect for simmering or keeping dishes warm. Featuring a durable 1 mm thick casing with optimized cooling and a grease-filtered air inlet, it's built for heavy-duty usage. The intuitive touch control panel with an LCD indicator and a 24-hour timer make this induction wok a versatile, reliable addition to any professional kitchen.
