Product Family: Aluminium Fry Pan

Apolo frying pan 32 centimeter aluminum with nonstick coating and Bakelite® handle

The Apolo frying pan by Pujadas offers exceptional performance with an ergonomic user experience, making it a favorite among busy chefs. The aluminum is strong, lightweight and features a nonstick coating for easy release and quick cleaning. The sculpted, ergonomic handle fits beautifully in the hand, easing any strain on the wrist, and the Bakelite material provides impressive heat resistance, so it's sure to stay cool. Designed for gas, electric and vitroceramic ranges, this 32-centimeter pan allows you to fry, flip, sauté, sear and more. Bakelite is a registered trademark of Bakelite LLC.
