Digital scale 310 x 256 mm stainless steel surface with LED display

The digital scale by Pujadas is a valuable addition to any kitchen, as it promises exceptional accuracy for precise measurements and portions. With a bright LED display, this scale is easy to read, and the two simple buttons ensure quick operation. It's battery-operated, which means this scale can go wherever you need it. The thin, streamlined design looks sleek and saves valuable space, while the stainless steel surface provides impressive durability and longevity. It's also very easy to clean, making it a quick, convenient way to control costs and improve accuracy.
