Fine mesh special grill pan

Crafted from high-strength stainless steel, this barbecue pan features a fine mesh design that allows direct cooking while preventing food loss. Its 25 cm diameter offers ample space for sautéing vegetables, seafood or small ingredients directly over the heat. The ergonomic handle ensures comfortable control, and the fine mesh helps preserve texture and retain juices for superior flavor. Fully compatible with charcoal ovens and open-flame grills, it's an essential tool for professional grilling.
