Premium Charcoal Oven 140 Red

The Premium Charcoal Oven delivers exceptional performance in a convenient design. Built for professional kitchens, this bright red charcoal oven features a thermally insulated body for enhanced efficiency and external protection, ensuring consistent cooking results while adding a pop of color to your kitchen. Mounted on a sturdy table with casters, this model allows you to easily move it to different workstations or serving areas as needed. The table base also features an integrated warming drawer to ensure prepared dishes maintain ideal serving temperature. With an adjustable grill height for versatile cooking and a sunken charcoal fire bowl that maximizes space, this oven supports a wide range of culinary techniques.
